FOR OFFICE USE ONLY

I understand that I have certain rights to privacy regarding my protected health information. These rights are given to me under the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 (HIPAA). I understand that by signing this consent I authorize you to use and disclose my protected health information to carry out:

- o Treatment (including direct or indirect treatment by other healthcare providers involved in my treatment);
- o Obtaining payment from third party payers (e.g. my insurance company);
- o The day-to-day healthcare operations of your practice.

I have also been informed of, and given the right to review and secure a copy of your Notice of Privacy Practices, which contains a more complete description of the uses and disclosures of my protected health information, and my rights under HIPAA. I understand that you reserve the right to change the terms of this notice from time to time and that I may contact you at any time to obtain the most current copy of this notice.

I understand that I have the right to request certain restrictions on how my protected health information is used and disclosed to carry out treatment, payment, and health care operations, but that you are not required to agree to these requested restrictions. However, if you do not agree, you are then bound to comply with this restriction.

I understand that I may revoke this consent, in writing, at any time. However, any use or disclosure that occurred prior to the date I revoke this consent is not affected.

Please list by name any other people you are authorizing to receive your protected dental information.

Patient Dental Benefit Information

As a courtesy to our patients, our office will assist you in obtaining the maximum benefit from your insurance. However, there are some common misconceptions about dental insurance benefits of which you should be aware of.

1. The term dental insurance is actually a misnomer. Insurance traditionally has meant the consumer pays a preset deductible and your insurance pays the remaining balance. A more correct term would be dental benefits or supplement to aid in offsetting the out-of-pocket expense accrued by the patient. This expense, called the copayment is due at the time the service is rendered.
2. Dental benefits pay based on a premium paid by you or your employer. Higher premiums pay more of the fees charged, have fewer exclusions, are less restrictive and ultimately result in less out-of-pocket expenses for the patient. If you believe your benefit should pay more on a particular procedure it may be beneficial to contact your insurance regarding this issue not us. Again, we did not set the standards or choose the plan in which you participate.
3. We do not accept secondary insurances, Workman's Compensation, Homeowner's or Automobile Insurance claims. All of these will be paid in full at time of service by the patient and the patient shall seek reimbursement. We will assist you in filing your claim by giving you the necessary information related to your particular case.
4. Any and all insurance balance over 60 days is considered delinquent and must be paid immediately by the patient. It then becomes up to you to receive reimbursement for any benefits due to you.
